

Meeting of New York Association.

A meeting of the Pennsylvania State College Association of New York was held on November 21, at 7 p. m. at which time an informal dinner was served at the Graduates Club.

During the business portion of the meeting the subject of athletics was thoroughly discussed, athletic director Golden being present to explain the relation of athletics to scholastic standing at State. A resolution of appreciation for the frank statements of Mr. Golden was unanimously passed. The majority of the members favored the offering of assistance to worthy students on some basis other than that of athletics alone. Mr. H. B. McLane presented the following resolution which was passed without a dissenting vote:

Resolved: That a permanent fund be established by the Pennsylvania State College Association of New York: said sum to be made up by contributions of twenty dollars ($20) from each member payable in one, two, three or four installments as may be elected.

This fund is to be held by a Board of three Trustees to be named by the President, and to be invested by them as deemed most advantageous.

The income only from said fund is to be devoted annually to such departments of the College as in their judgment most require assistance.

The date of fund payments to be Feb. 1, 1909.

The following officers were elected for one year, to assume duties immediately:

President, F. J. Pond; vice president, J. P. Kottcamp; secretary-treasurer, A. S. McAllister.

The 1910 La Vie.

To the alumni:

We are anxious to interest the friends of Penn State in the college annual which is to be published next June. The book is to be dedicated to Dr. Edwin Erle Sparks, our new president, and will contain a life history and full page photogravure of the man whom we believe is to be the dominant factor in State's future progress.

The 1910 La Vie will contain over four hundred pages, and it will be our aim to put out the most attractive and most artistic annual ever published at State. As you no doubt know, many of the La Vies in previous years have not been self-supporting. The management of this year's book has struck upon the plan adopted by other college annuals, and asks your cooperation in the work. The plan is to insert the professional cards of alumni as advertisements and present them with a copy of the book, in consideration of which we are asking them to make a voluntary subscription to the La Vie.

We trust that the alumni will cooperate with us in this plan by sending their subscriptions at once to the manager, and thereby insure the publishing of an annual of which State can be justly proud—a book in the perusal of which you can

"Fill up your pipe—and sit down to dream
And think to be back—Oh, how good it would seem!"

As the number of copies this year will be limited, the management respectfully requests that all of those who desire a copy of the book send in their subscription at once.

Yours very truly,
Robert Buka,
Bus. Mgr. 1910 La Vie.

Country Club Generally Approved.

The proposal of a country club for the faculty, students, and alumni of the college, including residents of the village of State College, has met with a quite cordial reception. Professor Harold B. Shattuck, who is receiving all names of persons in this locality who are interested in the project, has already quite a list.

If college bred means four years' loaf,
(Some people say 'tis so)
Oh, tell me where the flour is found
By one who needs the dough.

It is urged that as many as possible who expect to join the movement send in their names before Christmas. As soon after the vacation as is possible a meeting will be called of those who have registered, for the purpose of forming a preliminary organization.

It is further requested that alumni who care to support this movement so notify Mr. J.-E. Quigley '94, 466 South Rebecca Street, Pittsburg, Pa., who will as soon as possible, take steps to call meetings and have arrangements perfected for the participation of the alumni.

Enjoyable banquets were held last week by the miners, the chemists, and the Greater Pittsburg club.
