

The Pennsylvania State College

Chartered 1855

FOR THE FREE EDUCATION OF BOTH SEXES

Schools of Language and Literature, History, Mathematics and Philosophy; Agriculture, Natural Science, Engineering, Mines and Metallurgy, offering courses of study in all branches of the Arts and Sciences. For further information address

THE REGISTRAR, State College, Pennsylvania

THE WOMAN'S BUILDING

P. O. Noble '04 is head of the motor generator and rotary converter tests. At present Mr. Noble is making some special tests in one of the large power houses at Niagara Falls.

J. F. Tritle '04 is an engineer in the railway engineering department.

H. S. Frederick '05 has been transferred from the calculating room of the testing department to the commercial department.

H. E. Plank '05 has been promoted from first assistant on turbine test to the turbine-engineering department.

Frank Hershey '06 is in the induction motor calculating office.

P. B. Van Dine '06 has been transferred from the Pittsfield works to the testing department of the Schenectady works.

H. M. Jacobs '06 is switchboard operator in the central power house.

J. K. Mahaffey '06 has left the testing department to accept a position in the commercial department. At present he is located at the Pittsfield works of the company.

C. J. Adams '07 and R. S. Fridy '07 are on the small motor and generator test.

W. A. Fallon '07 is working on the railway motor test,

I. V. Goodman '07 has been transferred to the transformer test at the Pittsfield works.

W. E. Ruder '07 is in the research laboratory.

W. L. Hersh '07 is working on the large motor and generator test.

E. W. Nick '07 is working on the train control test of the electric railway department.

C. S. Shoemaker '07 has just finished the transformer test at Pittsfield and has returned to the Schenectady works.

V. V. Veenschoten '07 is in the induction motor testing department.

C. W. Walker '07 and LeRoy Seidell '07 are analytical chemists in the chemistry department.

J. H. McCoy '08 is working on special boiler tests in the central power station.

Correct Addresses of '99 Men.

The addresses of members of the Class of '99 differing from those given in the June '08 College Bulletin are as follows:

L. A. Harding, with Armstrong Cork company, Lancaster.

J. N. Sherer, superintendent Bellefonte Furnace company, Bellefonte.

W. F. Barclay, occupation correct but address should be Springfield, Mass.

John V. Neubert, occupation correct but address should be Albany, N. Y.

N. W. McCallum, occupation correct but address should be New York City.

W. D. Stevenson, agent electrical specialties, Westinghouse building, Pittsburg.

M. R. Stevenson, blast furnace superintendent, National Tube company, McKeesport, Pa.

W. P. B. Lockwood, dairy department, Massachusetts Agricultural College, Amherst, Mass.

R. V. Rex, superintendent Continental No. 2 works of H. C. Frick Coke company, R. F. D. No. 1, Uniontown, Pa.