

Verein" for the purpose of practising the spoken language and cultivating a taste for its literature.

An ore dressing laboratory is to be started soon in the Mining building. This is the first laboratory of its kind to be installed here. It will cover all the principles of ore dressing.

At the Wednesday mass meeting President Sparks announced that the next number of the free lecture course will be a first-class moving picture entertainment.

The regular faculty meeting will be held this evening.

ALUMNI NOTES.

R. H. Elliott '05 after spending a year with the General Electric company at Schenectady as a commercial engineer has been transferred to the Pittsfield works where he is engaged in transformer work. The other State alumni now located at Pittsfield are I. P. Thompson '04, J. K. Madden and W. E. Krone '05, F. C. Woodside, C. D. Preston and C. R. Blanchard '08, the two latter being on the test.

D. C. Baird '03 who has been with the Pennsylvania Railroad company for some time has recently been transferred to Bordentown, N. J.

J. E. Wagner '02 has recently been made superintendent of the Bellefonte Public schools.

Fred Fletcher '06 of Marietta, Pa., is just recovering from a serious attack of typhoid fever.

J. S. Henshaw '08 is with the Pressed Steel Car Co., E. E. Dept., McKees Rocks, Pa.

A. S. Lacock '08 is draftsman with the Jones & Laughlin Steel Co., Pittsburg, Pa.

C. J. Girvin '93 is superintendent of the Edge Moor Iron Co., at Edge Moor, Pa.

C. S. Buller '08 is draftsman with the Crocker-Wheeler Co., in New York City.

Stationery

Blair's Keystone Tablets
Crane's Linen Lawn
Eaton-Hurlbut Highland Linen
Elliott's Die Stamped Stationery

We offer the above to our patrons as unquestionably the best that money can buy

The Athletic Store

THE NEXT EVENT

A Penn State
Senior Week

Leave your orders for Full Dress Suits at

MONTGOMERY & CO'S

(Toggery Shop)

Up to date furnishers
for men