

cessful concert in the Auditorium. Messrs. Armstrong and Wegren sang solos and the quartet and glee club rendered numerous selections. Von Senden '10, in "Ye Olden Days," made quite a hit. The Mandolin Club helped to liven up the occasion with several numbers. The concert was a very prominent feature in the Senior Week program and the musical clubs are to be congratulated on the excellent music which they furnished.

Miss Atherton is to be congratulated on the success of the sacred concert given under her direction Sunday evening. The attendance was exceptionally good.

Mr. George Nox McCain Appears in Free Lecture Course.

The third lecture in the Free Lecture Course will be delivered in the Auditorium on Saturday evening, February 6, at 8 o'clock. The lecturer will be Mr. George Nox McCain, who will deliver an illustrated travelogue entitled "Modern Mexico." Mr. McCain has traveled widely, and has made his own pictures. All his lectures are illustrated by magnificent views, most of them in color, some presenting life-motion scenes. Mr. McCain has a wide reputation as a traveller and an interesting speaker. During the winter he has lectured to crowded houses in Pittsburg, Philadelphia, and other large cities. State College is fortunate in being able to hear him.

It is necessary to announce that, because of the crowded condition of the Auditorium, children under sixteen years of age will hereafter be excluded from these free lectures, unless they are accompanied by their parents. Doors will be open at 7:30.

The Best Argument we can offer for the character of our Clothes is the Clothes themselves. Every man who has worn them will acknowledge their superiority—their wonderful value and their undoubted merit. We show a remarkable diversity in the number of models and fabrics we display.
