Rules Governing Games for Inter-class Baseball Championship.

The purpose of this series is to discover and develop material for the varsity team and to provide four teams to meet the varsity in practice.

Article I. All members of a class who do not belong to the varsity baseball squad shall be eligible to the class teams.

Article II. Members of a class are those so ranked in the college lists, excepting men who have attended the meetings and paid dues into the treasury of the class for at least one year.

Article III. Each class shall equip and maintain its own team.

Article IV. Each class shall be scheduled to play three games with every other class.

Article V. The class having the highest percentage of victories at the end of the series shall be entitled to the championship.

Article VI. The schedule shall be arranged by a committee composed of the manager of the varsity team and the managers of the four class teams.

Article VII. This schedule committee shall choose as umpires, a number of men not belonging to any of the contesting classes. The managers of the two teams engaged in a game shall secure one of these umpires to officiate.

Article VIII. The managers shall keep a full record of all games with the batting and fielding averages of the players. So far as possible this record shall be published in the State Collegian.

Article IX. The diamond on the new athletic field is reserved exclusively for varsity games and practice.

Article X. The class teams practice against the varsity in their turns, as arranged by the schedule committee.

Article XI. The winners of the series shall have their class numerals engraved upon the Baseball Cup presented by Mr. George Meek. The winners of the series shall have, during Commencement Week and the year following, the privilege of flying their class flag with the championship pennant from the pole on the new athletic field.

Article XII. Each class shall award numerals for participation in these games, as it sees fit, except that no class shall have the right to award such numerals unless its team shall have played all the nine games provided for in these rules.

Article XIII. In disputes under these rules the court of last resort shall be composed of the Director of Athletics, the President of the Athletic Association, the captain and manager of the Varsity team, and one other man chosen by them.

Resolutions.

Whereas, Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to call unto himself the soul of the mother of our friend and classmate, Wilberforce Eckels, be it therefore,

Resolved, that we extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to him and his family in their bereavement, and be it further,

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be published in the State Collegian.
