

New Engineer Board.

At a meeting of the seniors and juniors in the School of Engineering, the following juniors were elected to fill the positions on the staff of the Engineer for next year: J. F. Mattern, mechanical; S. J. McNary, electrical; L. M. Fisher, civil; and E. W. Stitt and A. H. Jones business manager and assistant business manager respectively. The editor-in chief will be elected by the new board from among its members later in the year.

Strickland Gillilan.

Mr. Gillilan lived up to his reputation as a humorist when he entertained a large audience for two hours in the Auditorium last Saturday night. He mixes his jokes with much good common sense and philosophy, and many of them have the rare element of pathos. He says his object is to better the world by giving it sugar coated pills. The story of his experience in a sleeping car would make the blackest pessimist almost smile.

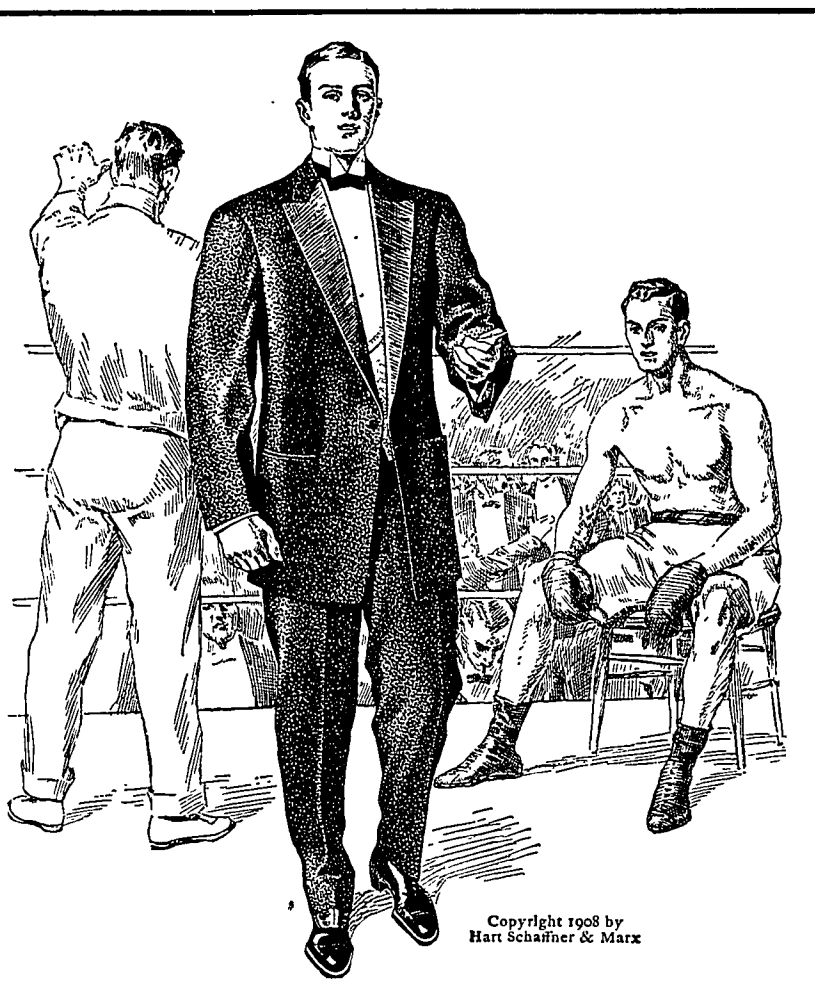

The Ben Greet players will present Macbeth at Carlisle tonight under the auspices of the Civic Club of Dickinson College. Tomorrow they will give The Merchant of Venice and Hamlet at Lancaster under the management of the Franklin and Marshall Y. M. C. A.
