Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

· You came to State to get a wider view and a deeper understanding of this world, of what it is and what it is doing. You don't care to waste a lot of time and energy doing it either. What are you going to do about it?

Here are four men who will help you get at the facts:

William A. DeWitt, Yale. Frank A. Fall, New York. Robert Davis, New York.

Wellington Wood, Philadelphia. These men will link up the State man of today with the industrial and social problems which will confront him after he gets out of college.

DeWitt, the popular Yale man, comes next Sunday and will address the class of 1909 at 10:00 a. m, in room 20 Engineering Building. He will speak in the old chapel, where everyone is invited, at 6:15; and is signed up for a number of group meetings on Sunday and Monday.

Every State man should hear Mr. DeWitt.

C. N. Fleming '09 represents State at an important conterence of ore hundred selected men to consider the larger interests of the work of the Christian Association for young men in mission lands, which meets in Troy, N. Y., this week. Dr. Wei-Ching Yeu, Secretary of the Chinese Embassy in Washington, William T. Ellis, world-traveler and journalist, and Edward C. Carter, Harvard's representative in India are among the speakers.

The president of the Russian Douma presented to John R. Mott an address in appreciation of his work in behalf of the Russian Y. M. C. A., at the annual meeting of the association, which was held a few days ago and was led by Countess Shuvaloff. Mr. Mott read a special message to the young men of Russia from Ex-President Roosevelt. Emperor Nicholas, the Empress, and other members of the royal family are taking a lively interest in the association has the man who is his own lawyer. Yet in how many other matters, as vitally important, do most of us act blindly, without accurate information and sound advice. This very day you are doubtless considering some question connected with business, finance or investment, employment, public or private affairs, studies, club work, travel, or other problems of interest and importance to you, and would welcome reliable, prompt, complete information and good, sound, unprejudiced, confidential advice, because these form the basis of all correct action and satisfactory results. Hitherto they have been obtainable only at an almost prohibitive cost of time, travel, trouble and money. Now you consult us and obtain the information or advice you need at a minimum of effort and expense. We are not a detective bureau of fortune tellers or dealers in tips and systems or miracle workers, but are simply a body of experts and trained investigators, whose sole business it is to furnish accurate information and sonud advice in ordinary or unusual affairs. Whether your needs have to do with important problems or simple matters, we believe we can help you, and will gladly send you free further information as to our methods, charges, and the field we cover. Just write for particulars, stating your needs

A FOOL FOR HIS CLIENT

> National Clearing House of Information, 2401 North Capitol St., Washington, D. C.

Dealers in Facts and Confidential Advisers.

Two Good Wrestling Matches Coming

From the number of freshmen who are now on the wrestling squad, which is preparing to meet Lehigh here on March 20th and Cornell at Ithaca on March 27th, one would judge that '12 has made a firm resolve to atone for the disastrous defeat experienced last fall at the hands of 1911. An even greater number of sophomores are out. The semi final bouts to decide upon the men who will face Cornell and Lehigh were held last night in the Armory, while the finals will come off on Friday night. McKee '10 is president of the Wrestling Association and Brown '11 is manager. Here is the list of wrestlers now working under "Pop" Golden's instructions:

115 pound class—Ryder '11, Wolfe '12, Oberly '10, Parke '12. Glanville '11, Devers '11, Kurtz '13.

125 pound class—Boger, '12, I acy '11, Crouse '11, Diehl '11.

135 pound class—Brown '11, Jarrett '13, Knight '12, Guthrie '11, McNary '10.

148 pound class—Smith '10, Morrison '11, Ely '12, Webb '11, Ennis '11.

158 pound class—Hess '11, Hartman '12, Gray '12, Lesh '12, Kuhns '12, McKee '10, Craumer '09.

170 pound class—Snodgrass '12, Levisee '12, Peck '11, Watson '11. Heavyweight—Cyphers '09.

The students at Spokane, Wash., when they found out that the college authorities could not afford a gymnasium at present, undertook the erection of one with their own hands and at their own expense.

WHAT? WORK

Postoffice address Box 229

FOR NEXT SUMMER

See W. O. KANTNER 201 McAllister