

The Pennsylvania State College

Chartered 1855

FOR THE FREE EDUCATION OF BOTH SEXES

Schools of Language and Literature, History, Mathematics and Philosophy, Agriculture, Natural Science, Engineering, Mines and Metallurgy, offering courses of study in all branches of the Arts and Sciences. For further information address

THE REGISTRAR, State College, Pennsylvania

CALENDAR.

In order that the Calendar may be made as complete as possible, all college organizations are urged to hand in notices of meetings.

THURSDAY, MARCH 11

7:00 p. m. Episcopal Service. 114 Main.

8:00 p. m. Lecture by Mrs. Rachel F. Avery in the old chapel.

SATURDAY, MARCH 13

8:00 p. m. Lecture by Prof. H. S. Graves "How our Government is Solving its Forest Problems." Auditorium.

SUNDAY, MARCH 14

10:00 a. m. Address to the Senior Class by William A. DeWitt, of Yale, in room 20. Engineering building.

11:00 a. m. Chapel. Pres. G. E. Reed of Dickinson will preach.

4:30 p. m. Episcopal Service. 114 Main.

6 15 p. m. Y. M. C. A. Meeting, Old Chapel. William A. DeWitt will address the student body.

Faculty Actions.

At a recent meeting of the General Faculty, the following authority was granted the Committee on Student Organizations and Publications:

(1) To require the managers of the Pharsonians, the Thespians, the Glee Club, the Mandolin Club, or any other student organization giving public performances, to furnish the Committee with a list of all the members of their respective organizations and schedule of performances at home and abroad, together with the anticipated absences from college exercises due to rehearsals, performances, or absence from town.

(2) To approve or reject the schedules of performances as submitted.

(3) To exclude from participation in any public performance any member of such organization whose class standing in the opinion of the Committee is not sufficiently high.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Mrs. W. A. Speer, of Blairsville, visited her brother, E. W. Stitt, '10, over Sunday.

C. L. Lurah '08 visited the college a few days last week. He is working with his father at Sonestown.

C. A. Hogentogler has been elected manager of the 1909 baseball team, and James Millholland of the 1911 team.

Prof. and Mrs. Diemer entertained the senior mechanicals last Friday evening. An enjoyable time was spent at six hand eucher.

Mr. Kinney, inspecting engineer for the Universal Portland Cement Co., will deliver an illustrated lecture on cement manufacturing in the old chapel Thursday, March 18, at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited.

Mrs. Rachel Foster Avery, president of the Woman's Suffrage Association of Pennsylvania, will deliver an address in the old chapel tonight at eight o'clock under the auspices of the Woman's Literary Club.

President Sparks delivered several addresses within the last week. The first was on Saturday before the Reading Teachers' Institute; the second in Westchester Sunday; and the third in St. Lukes Parish House at Lebanon on Monday. On Tuesday he delivered addresses before the Chester High School and the Century Woman's Club of Chester.

The representatives in the State legislature who visited the College recently were John F. Cox, of Homestead, Speaker of the House; James F. Woodward, of McKeesport, chairman of the appropriation committee; Milton W. Shreve, of Erie; Harry A. Thompson, of Tyronne; Andrew B. Dunsmore, of Wellsboro; William Ward, Jr., of Chester; Elgie T. Wasson, of Butler; Robert H. Longwell, of Brockwayville; David Hunter, Jr., of Pittsburg; Frank P. Barnhart, of Johnstown; Edgar R. Kiess, of Hughesville; Frank J. Detzel, of Erie; E. H. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre; Frank McQuown, of Ashley; Frank J. Klumpp, of Pittsburg; C. Victor Johnson, of Meadville; James A. Dale, of York; Joseph Kelley, of Reedsville; William H. Floto, of