

Free Illustrated Lecture on Forestry.

On Saturday evening, March 13, Professor H. S. Graves, Director of the Yale Forest School, will deliver an illustrated lecture in the Auditorium on "How our Government is Solving its Forest Problems." As author, teacher, and lecturer, Professor Graves is one of the leaders in forestry education in this country. He has traveled widely both in America and abroad, has studied the important forest regions in different parts of the United States, and has kept in close touch with the great work that the federal government is doing.

Children under sixteen years of age will be excluded unless accompanied by adults. Doors open at 7:30; lecture at 8.

"Deutscher Verein" Organized.

During the past week the "Deutscher Verein" held its first meeting and adopted a constitution and elected officers as follows: Karl B. Lohmann, president; W. B. Nissley, vice-president; W. K. Graeff, treasurer, and J. G. Detwiler, secretary. The purpose of the society is to develop a practical knowledge of the German language and literature, and the greater part of the meetings will be carried on in German. All students who have completed three semester's work in the language are eligible to membership. Meetings will be held on alternate Friday evenings at seven o'clock.

William A. Laird, Jr., '08, has been elected by the Chambersburg council to the position of borough engineer of that place.

Mr. B. W. Dickson has been appointed Director of Outdoor Athletics at Lehigh. He will coach the baseball and football teams and have general oversight of the other outdoor athletics.

ARGUMENTS

- ☞ How about that spring suit you have been figuring on?
- ☞ Do you not think it would be policy to get us to show you samples and quote you a price on same?
- ☞ Five or ten dollars saved is just that much earned. We represent no less than five of the leading merchant tailors of this country.
- ☞ We want your order and will use you right to get it.
- ☞ It won't cost you anything to find out what we have to offer and we are positive that we can save you considerable money. We assume all risk and responsibility.
