COLLEGE NOTES.

The attention of the students is called to the lists of names now posted on the bulletin board in the Main Building. It is desirable to have the name of every student, together with his residence and course, appear in the catalogue in exact form. Any corrections should be sent to the Registrar's Office without fail during the week; otherwise the name of the student will appear in the catalogue as given on the bulletin board.

Owing to the frequent demand made upon the college by editors and publishers for the loan of cuts and half-tones, an effort is being made to collect all cuts of the college buildings, grounds, student groups, etc., and to catalogue them. Any person having cuts in his possession or having knowledge of where this material is stored, will confer a favor by informing the President's Office.

Word has been received from Harrisburg that the item in the bill carrying appropriation for a Summer School at the college has been cut out by the Committee.

A FOOL FOR HIS CLIENT

has the man who is his own lawyer. Yet in how many other matters, as vitally important, do most of us act blindly, without accurate information and sound advice. This very day you are doubtless considering some question connected with business, finance or investment, employment, public or private affairs, studies, club work, travel, or other problems of interest and importance to you, and would welcome reliable, prompt, complete information and good, sound, unprejudiced, confidential advice, because these form the basis of all correct action and satisfactory results. Hitherto they have been obtainable only at an almost prohibitive cost of time, travel, trouble and money. Now you consult us and obtain the information or advice you need at a minimum of effort and expense. We are not a detective bureau of fortune tellers or dealers in tips and systems or miracle workers, but are simply a body of experts and trained investigators, whose sole business it is to furnish accurate information and sound advice in ordinary or unusual affairs. Whether your needs have to do with important problems or simple matters, we believe we can help you, and will gladly send you free further information as to our methods, charges, and the field we cover. Just write for particulars, stating your needs.
