At Brown Lynch had the misfortune to be hit in the eye with a bad bound when one man was out in the ninth. There was little time to catch the boat for New York and Skemp went in for "Paddy" without warming up. Through a batting bee Brown secured three runs and won the game.

The baseball season was inaugurated at home last Saturday when Carnegie Tech appeared here for its third annual game. The student body then had its first opportunity to see Penn State's nine in real action and there was a great amount of satisfaction derived from the way in which the Pittsburg team was signally defeated. Not an error was credited to our players and Tech did not secure a run. Eber-lein was easily the batting star while Hirshman, McCleary and Blythe also did well with the stick. Cromley secured both of the visitor's hits; one of these should have been an easy out but Carson caught his spikes in the hard ground, and although the ball was fielded cleanly, the throw was too late. Both Lynch and Skemp twirled in faultless fashion. Second baseman Fuhs for Carnegie Tech is a brother of W. Fuhs '09.

The Opening Interclass Games.

On Thursday April first, while the varsity was playing its opening game of the season in the South, the Sophomores and Freshmen met in initial struggle of Penn State's first interclass baseball league—that is, the first one since away back in the 90's. Through costly errors 1912 scored most of its runs, for McCain allowed the Freshmen but four hits.

 Two men were out in the ninth when captain Watson's team clinched an exciting victory by scoring three runs on several hits, one of which was McMullen's two-bagger. Score:

 Freshmen . . . . . 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 0 3 -6 4 7 Batteries—'11, McCain and Chubbuck; '12, Anne and Watson. Umpire—Dr. Robison.

By exactly the same score and in just such an exciting game the seniors triumphed over the juniors in the second contest of the inter-class series on April 3. During the greater part of the struggle '10 led with a safe margin but "Bill" Fuhs' triple with two on bases completed the seniors' total of five runs secured in the memorable eighth inning. The senior captain also played an excellent fielding game at first base and his team performed well. The score.

The Indians on Friday.

Not only will the Thespians produce their offering "Popocaterpillar VII," on Friday night but on that afternoon the Carlisle Indians will appear on the "New Beaver Field" to do battle with captain Hirshman's nine. History shows that four games of the five played on the diamond with the Indians have been White and Blue victories and we can improve this record a little tomorrow afternoon in the only contest to be had with the Redmen this spring. They have beaten Pennsylvania this year and have just as good a team as usual, so that we will have to fight hard to win. Following the game there will be enough time for a little relaxation and then to the Thespians.
