Germain the Wizard.

The greatest novelty of the Y. M. C. A. Entertainment course, and probably the greatest success, was reserved for the closing evening in the premier production by the magician, Mr. Karl Germain.

Mr. Germain, possessed of that happy faculty of getting down into his audience and keeping it laughing by a ready run of ~~his~~ exposed a number of new slight-of-hand and mechanical tricks and won a place among the head liners.

Track Notes.

The two meets, held Saturday of last week and Monday of this week, brought out the fact that the track team is developing some very good material from the new men. Of the old men, nearly all made good on point winning ability, and of the new men Bevan, Pier, Watts and Crawford showed up well.

The results of these two meets can be considered very satisfactory despite the overwhelming defeat by the Indians. On Saturday the track team will again go on the war-path, with Swarthmore's scalp as the objective. Lafayette easily defeated Swarthmore last Saturday, and it is hoped that our men can turn the same trick this week, even though the redoubtable Kreuger comes with them.
