FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Our Varsity Next Year Will Have Eight Games. Cornell and Navy Not on the Schedule.

- Oct. 2, Grove City at State.
- Oct. 9, Carlisle Indians at Wilkesbarre or Scranton.
- Oct. 16, Geneva at State.
- Oct. 23, University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia.
- Oct. 30, Lafayette (place undecided)
- Nov. 6, Bucknell at Lewisburg.
- Nov. 13, University of West Virginia at State.
- Nov. 25, University of Pittsburg at Pittsburg

The above schedule as made up by Manager McKee, although it has two games less than last year, will, however, be a hard one and one which will keep State spirit up to its old standard. It is with deep regret on all sides that no game is scheduled with either Cornell or the Navy, but the coaches and the alumni advisory committee refused to grant the taking of these two long and hard trips. The havoc that the heavy schedule of last year wrought upon our players is not yet forgotten, and that is the only reason for the dropping of the two games. Athletic relations are still good with both places, and both were very anxious to have a game with us, but it is advisable not to do so this year.

The season opens one week later than last year and will give our men more time to get in shape for the hard struggle with the Indians. Our agreement with Bucknell takes

The Best Argument we can offer for the character of our Clothes is the Clothes themselves. Every man who has worn them will acknowledge their superiority—their wonderful value and their undoubted merit. We show a remarkable diversity in the number of models and fabrics we display.
