

ing, 3:30, baseball, Alumni vs. College, Beaver field, 4.00; reception to commencement guests, President's lawn, 5:00; Junior farewell reception to Seniors, Armory, eight o'clock.

La Vie Will Soon Be Here.

The entire edition of the 1910 La Vie is expected here sometime this week or next and indications point to its being at a premium before Commencement. An advance copy was received last week and the few Juniors who have seen it pronounce it to be far in advance of any previous book. The binding, photographs and entire arrangement are changed considerably and make the book real attractive, and well worth a place among one's library treasures and as a permanent souvenir of life at Penn State. As was announced earlier in the year, the edition is to be limited to subscribers only, with the privilege of securing extra copies as long as they last. A very small number of extras have been ordered and will be available to the members of the Junior class first. Every Junior who wishes one should be prepared to take it when he secures his other books. They will be distributed as soon as they arrive.

The graduate number of the Wilkes-Barre High School Journal contains an excellent article by Karl Lohmann entitled "Impressions of Penn State." It can be found in the Y. M. C. A. reading room.

Saturday June 5 is the date of the Interclass Meet.

"STUDENTS, $3 TO $10 PER DAY, during vacation and odd hours, business easy, honorable, profitable, goods highly meritorious, endorsed by U. S. Government, write for full particulars, Shipman Agents Supply Dept., Lewis Block, Buffalo, New York."

Cotrell & Leonard

ALBANY, N. Y.

makers and renters of . . .

CAPS

GOWNS and

HOODS

to the American Colleges from the Atlantic to the Pacific

Class contracts a specialty

J. P. ARMEL

Student Representative

206 West College Avenue

At The Nittany Inn
Friday of this week

☐ Sack Suits.

☐ Full dress and

☐ Tuxedo Suits.

☐ Outing Trousers.

☐ Raincoats.

☐ Straw Hats

Also made to measure clothes

Jas. E. Harshberger
State representative
139 Frazier street

SIM THE CLOTHIER
CORRECT DRESS FOR MEN
BELLEFONTE

☐ Distributor Hart Schaffner & Marx, Carson Meyer & Co., Resenald & Wiel Pelham clothes.