bers of both classes together and serve to get the freshmen well started. The next contest, the wrestling match, will be between a few men only, and men who will have ample time for preparation. Then will come the cider scrap, one in which the whole class enters, and then the football game where only a few take part. The scheme is a very good one, and one which should work wonders.

ARTICLE I

This scrap shall be substituted for the present Picture scrap between the Sophomore and Freshman classes, and shall be a regular scheduled contest.

ARTICLE II

The scrap shall be held on the second Saturday afternoon following the opening of the college year.

ARTICLE III

Sec. 1. The scrap shall be held on some suitable field which shall be so chosen and so laid off as to give neither side the advantage.

Sec. 2. In laying out the field a center line shall be drawn through its length.

Sec. 3. On either side of this center line two lines shall be drawn at distances of five and fifteen yards respectively.

Sec. 4. The judges shall choose the field and fix the boundaries, making them as extensive as practicable. They shall also superintend the laying out of the field.

ARTICLE IV

Sec. 1. At the start of the scrap the ball shall be conveniently located on the center line of the field.

Sec. 2. A picked team of five men from each class shall group themselves opposite the ball on the five yard lines.

Sec. 3. The classes shall arrange themselves on the fifteen yard lines.

Sec. 4. The first choice of sides shall be determined by lot, but the contestants shall exchange sides for each period.

ARTICLE V

Sec. 1. At a preparatory signal the picked teams shall advance, raise the ball, and poise it in the air.

Sec. 2. At the report of a pistol the scrap shall begin and shall continue for three periods of ten minutes each, the object of each class being to push the ball into the enemies' territory.

Sec. 3. The judges shall announce the end of each period by means of some previously arranged signal.

Sec. 4. If the ball is pushed out of bounds the referee shall put it in play twenty-five yards inside the boundary by posting the classes in a manner similar to that at the start.

ARTICLE VI

Intermission between periods shall continue for five minutes.

ARTICLE VII

At the end of each period the side that has the ball in the enemy's territory shall score one point. The class that scores the greater number of points shall win the scrap.

ARTICLE VIII

Sec. 1. The referee shall be a member of the faculty or an alumnus of the college who has been graduated at least three years.

Sec. 2. The judges shall consist of the Junior and Senior class presidents and one other, (a member of the faculty or an alumnus) chosen by them. Aside from choosing and laying out the field the judges shall have charge of construing these rules and of making temporary rules to cover unforeseen circumstances.

Sec. 3. The judges shall select ten members from each of the upper classes to oversee the scrap and enforce fair play.

ARTICLE IX

Athletes in training may or may not enter the scrap as they, the coach and the Physical Director decide.

The committee recommends that the date of the interclass wrestling match be changed to a later date, probably the first Saturday in November.
