Prof. H. B. Shattuck was married on July 21 to Miss Elizabeth M. Stuart, of State College.

Prof. J. Franklin Meyer, until recently the head of the physics department, was married to Miss Ella J. Mather, of Randnor, Pa., during July.

F. M. Smith '10, has left college to accept a position in the P. R. R. forestry service.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Catholic services are held at the college every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the Agricultural building.

Miss Helen H. Atherton is spending a leave of absence for one semester in graduate study at Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

Prof. Ray has an article in The Sewanee Review for July, entitled, "The Promotion of International Peace." The Dial, in its issue of September first, devotes five columns to a review of Professor Ray's recent book on The Repeal of the Missouri Compromise.

It is gratifying to note that the Penn State Y. M. C. A. ranks first among the schools and colleges of Pennsylvania. The Association News publishes a table for the year ending March 31, 1909 in which Penn State shows a membership of 491, while the University of Pennsylvania is second with 459. Lafayette is third with 264.

Professor Zook.

Mr. George F. Zook, the new instructor in History and Political Science, was graduated from the University of Kansas in 1906. He pursued graduate work there for a year and for two years at Cornell University. Mr. Zook held a fellowship in history at the University of Kansas, where he received the degree of M. A. For the past two years he has been assistant in European History at Cornell. The Southern Educational Review for July contains a scholarly article by Mr. Zook, entitled, "Negotiations for a New Commercial Treaty Between France and the United States, 1778-1793."

More Cinders for the Track.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company, through General Superintendent G. W. Creighton, has donated three more carloads of cinders for the filling up of places on the tracks of the athletic field which have settled. This makes a total of 13 cars of cinders which the Pennsylvania people have not only donated but have hauled to Bellefonte free of cost. The Bellefonte Central railroad has brought them from Bellefonte to the college without pay. This material will place the tracks in completed condition. The thanks of the student body are due to Mr. Creighton and the railroad companies.

The 1909 Electricals.

W. Barlow, W. L. Clay, T. R. Hay, W. E. Hoffman and J. M. Stoughton are with the General Electric company at Schenectady, N. Y.
