Pushball Rules.

ARTICLE I

This scrap shall be substituted for the present Picture scrap between the Sophomore and Freshman classes, and shall be a regular scheduled contest.

ARTICLE II

The scrap shall be held on the second Saturday afternoon following the opening of the college year.

ARTICLE III

Sec. 1. The scrap shall be held on some suitable field which shall be so chosen and so laid off as to give neither side the advantage.

Sec. 2. In laying out the field a center line shall be drawn through its length.

Sec. 3. On either side of this center line two lines shall be drawn, at distances of five and fifteen yards respectively.

Sec. 4. The judges shall choose the field and fix the boundaries, making them as extensive as practicable. They shall also superintend the laying out of the field.

ARTICLE IV

Sec. 1. At the start of the scrap the ball shall be conveniently located on the center line of the field.

Sec. 2. A picked team of five men from each class shall group themselves opposite the ball on the five yard lines.

Sec. 3. The classes shall arrange themselves on the fifteen yard lines.

Sec. 4. The first choice of sides shall be determined by lot, but the contestants shall exchange sides for each period.

ARTICLE V

Sec. 1. At a preparatory signal the picked teams shall advance, raise the ball, and poise it in the air.

Sec. 2. At the report of a pistol the scrap shall begin and shall continue for
