Warner's Carlisle men in the least. Against Bucknell the Indians scored last Saturday almost at will, yet the Lewisburgers had the satisfaction of making a touchdown on Captain Libby's aggregation when the Bucknell right-halfback, McDonald, secured a blocked kick and ran forty yards to a touchdown. Libby and Houser each made a field goal in this game. Here are the Indian scores to date:

Date	Score
Sept 18	Carlisle Indians 35 Steeften A C 0
Sept 25	" " " 9 Villanova 0
Oct. 2	" " " 48-Bucknell 6

Thus the Indians have had three games from which to gain experience and in which to try out new men while our varsity has had only last Saturday's 31 to 0 triumph over Grove City on which to base any predictions of this Saturday's result.

Geneva, which appears here on Oct. 16, lost to W. and J. 37 to 0, the little Washington school having less trouble with Geneva than Our Own had with Grove City. Against Waynesburg college, West Virginia university scored three touchdowns and won 15 to 0, but the Mountaineers lacked at least three of their best men in the lineup. West Virginia, Geneva and Grove City are the only home games scheduled by Manager McKee.

Old Penn has thus far beaten Gettysburg 22 to 0, Ursinus 22 to 0 and Dickinson 18 to 0. The Quakers are undoubtedly going to have their usual speedy, aggressive team but we are counting on Coach Hollenback's efforts to give us a better chance at Philadelphia with Captain Miller's team this fall than we ever had before.

Lafayette opened her season by defeating Wyoming Seminary 23 to 0; Bucknell lost to the Redskins 48 to 6 as stated heretofore; and the University of Pittsburg won from a strong team representing Ohio Northern university 16 to 0. The Pittsburgers have a veteran team and we can count on a great final struggle with them on Thanksgiving. Previous to that we have the hard games with the Indians, Penn, Bucknell and West Virginia to take into account.
