Announcement.

In another column will be noticed the first advertisement of the firm of McNary and Swope, professional photographers. We wish to announce to our friends and to the student body at large that we are now prepared to do photographic work of all kinds. We have both succeeded in making a reputation, and with the combination this year hope to do better work than ever: to do any work and more of it. We recommend to your notice a multitude of pictures made in the past, each of which speaks for itself. Fraternity house parties, flash-lights and groups of all kinds are our specialties. The patronage of the student body is solicited.

S. J. McNary, '10, 333 McAllister.
R. W. Swope, '11, 486 Main.

The Blue Goose.

A neat and cozy lunch room was opened on Friday, Oct. 15, at 116 East College avenue, at the sign of the Blue Goose. Coffee, sandwiches, cake, cocoa with whipped cream, pies and cookies are ready every afternoon and evening.

Special dishes, as oysters, salads, hot cakes, waffles and chicken will be sold on special days. Come in and consult the menu.

Orders taken from families, clubs, fraternities and evening parties, for pies, cakes, salads, deserts, etc. Private dining room for special dinners and luncheons.

All kinds of catering solicited. Orders taken over the phone. Strictly cash business.

Miss Betty W. Stewart, Manager.

Notice.

All persons who have purchased general admission tickets for the Y. M. C. A. entertainment course can procure reserved seats at room 273 Main at any time by paying twenty-five cents extra.

Announcement has just been made of the marriage of Richard R. Dry '08, to Miss Violet Brown Miller. The wedding took place last February.

Howard A. Moore, of Roseville, was married in September to Miss Hess, of Oregon, Pa. He finished here last year in the two year course in Agriculture.
