

Who is John and Where Does he Live?

The Official Student and Faculty Directory of The Pennsylvania State College tells it all.

It gives the name, class, course, college and house address of every student and instructor. Also other useful local information.

On sale at Toggery Shop next week

MASQUE BALL

The Hallowe'en Masque Ball of Monday Night Was a Great Success. Will No Doubt be an Annual Affair.

The Hallowe'en Masquerade held in the Armory on Monday evening was in every way a decided success. The decorations carried out charmingly the spirit of the season. The shocks of corn, the witches riding in mid air, with their usual companions, the broom and the black cat, and the subdued light from the Jack O'Lanterns all tended to produce a true Hallowe'en feeling. From its position in an arbor of corn stalks, the orchestra rendered admirably the music for the dancing. The cider barrel and the refreshment booth also claimed their share of attention.

The costumes were in many cases, of a decidedly original character, and in all cases showed great ingenuity. There were several amusing Negro couples, a group of rollicking clowns, a Colonial gentleman or two, and many lovely young ladies. One athletic Vassar girl, in particular, received a large share of attention. Before the close of the Ball, a Grand March was formed, and this was followed by the awarding of prizes. The prize went to the Lady in Lavendar, for her artistic costume and very ladylike manner. The lady was G. W. Jacobs. The judges could only decide the second award by the flip of a coin. F. A. Cannon, as a ferocious cannibal, won in this way from W. H. Hoffman, who appeared in a coat of feathers. His appearance was like that of some freshman after a particular kind of punishment has been administered. The third prize went to George Washington, very ably impersonated by C. F. Preston. The entire affair was so successful that there is no doubt that it will not be the last Masquerade Ball.

Thanksgiving Hop.

The following is the program of dances for the Senior hop on November 19, in the Armory:

- 1 Two step The Fighting Hope
- 2 Waltz - Garden of Dreams
- 3 Two-step - Lanky Yankee Boys in Blue
- 4 Waltz - Algeria
- Extra - Two-step - Yama Yama Man
- 5 Two-step Cubanola Glide
- 6 Waltz Dream of Heaven
- 7 Two-step Hammock Love Song (The Beauty Spot)
- 8 Waltz Mlle. Mischief
- 9 Two-step - Rings on Her Fingers and Bells on Her Toes
- 10 Waltz Waltzes from The Motor Girl
- 11 Two-step - I'm Going To Do What I Please
- 12 Waltz Love Sparks
- Intermission
- 13 Two step - The White Wash Man
- 14 Waltz - The Red Mill
- 15 Two step - Hello People

- 16 Waltz - Everybody Loves Me But the One I Love
- Extra Two-step - Serio Comique
- 17 Two-step - Whistle and I'll Wait For You
- 18 Waltz - When I Marry You
- 19 Two-step - If You Were Only Mine (Queen of The Moulin Rouge)
- 20 Waltz - The Soul Kiss
- Extra Waltz - The Prima Donna
- 21 Two-step - Then We'll All Go Home
- 22 Waltz - In Happy Siumberland (Little Nemo)
- 23 Two-step - The Great Divide
- 24 Waltz - Good Night Dear

Continued from page 3

last ten days has been used to get ready for Old State. And we will be there! No sound reason can be advanced to show why one thousand State undergraduates should not be in the stands pulling for "Larry" Vorhis and his fighting eleven on Saturday. Then everybody off to Lewisburg!

It should be noticed that our neighboring rival has won fifty per cent of the athletic contests, since athletic relations were resumed nearly two years ago. In baseball Bucknell has won two of the three games and each has taken one basketball game, while State decisively won the only gridiron struggle thus far played. Back in the nineties when Bucknell was Penn State's greatest rival nothing pleased the students more than to triumph over the Orange and Blue and there