The game will be played on Forbes Field, probably the finest athletic expanse in the country. Our Pittsburg alumni association has reserved grandstand, cheering-section and box seats on the best part of the grounds to witness the game. In section 1, main floor, 650 seats are held for State men and 500 in sections 1 and 3 in the balcony: these are right opposite the middle of the playing field. Below the grandstand and in front of it is the State cheering-section which will accommodate about 1000 men with good big voices. The 75 boxes reserved are on top of the grandstand and one can be secured at almost any part of the field. The grandstand seats are $1.50 apiece and the box seats $2.00. In a few days the general admission tickets can be secured here from Manager McKee for fifty cents; the price at the field in Pittsburg for this section will be $1.00.

It is urged that all State alumni, old students and men now in college get their orders in to R. H. Smith as soon as possible.

Only Two Left.

Our row of opponents at the beginning of the season has been bowled over with the exception of two. These are West Virginia and Pitt, and it happens that they met in no-score game at Morgantown last Saturday.

Galvin, for the Pittsburgers, had three opportunities for field goals but all were failures. Once Coach Thompson's men rushed the ball to the Mountaineers' 5 yard line and again the 13-yard mark, yet no scores resulted. Monk's punting for West Virginia and the playing of Springer, an old "W. U. P." star, kept the Morgantown team almost on even terms with the University of Pittsburg, which apparently had just a little the better of the argument. Van Doren and captain Roe were not in Pitt's lineup on account of injuries.

The fact that West Virginia played the Smoky City University a tie game last Saturday means that we are going to have a tough proposition on New Beaver Field when the Mountaineers meet Penn State this Saturday. Four games have been won from the Morgantown team on the old field and we should start just as clean a record against it two days hence on the new field. The visitors have never scored on State.

Their record this season is a good one, the only defeat registered against them being a 12-0 game with Pennsylvania. Besides the tie with Pitt, West Virginia also tied Bucknell 6-6, and won from Waynesburg, Slippery Rock, Normal and Marietta College. Undoubtedly the game against the Gold and Blue will be our best home game of the season. We now have a team well worth rooting for—one of the best in Penn State's history—and it would not be expecting too much to have the best "State spirit" shown next Saturday on New Beaver Field that has ever been produced here.

A Second College Orchestra.

Owing to the great number of student musicians that cannot be accommodated in the College Orchestra, it has been thought advisable to start an orchestra for the purpose of offering to all students an opportunity for continuing or starting orchestral work. It is to be hoped that all students interested will turn out and make it an enjoyable as well as instructive affair. The orchestra will be directed by members of the College Orchestra, and one hour will be given each week.

The first rehearsal is called for Thursday, 6:30 to 7:30 p. m., room 529 Main.
