Alton Packard on Saturday.

Alton Packard, a humorist, will give the second of the Y. M. C. A. entertainments in the Auditorium on Saturday evening. The word "humorist" is, however, not nearly adequate in describing Mr. Packard. His work is so diversified, and so well executed, that no one word can attempt to describe it. His object, to deliver "rare fun well done" is accomplished by more agencies than usually fall under the command of one man. He sketches, writes, sings, impersonates, and plays the piano; and he not only does these things, but does them at first hand, and masterfully.

"Vanity Fair" in the title of the evening's fun making. It is a humorous discussion of, perhaps, the most humorous of all things, humanity in the midst of its vanities. Original verses, sketches, impersonations, and musical skits all go to make up the ensemble. All who have heard Mr. Packard in previous entertainments will need no coaxing to persuade them to attend on Saturday evening; and all others will be equally as enthusiastic after the first hearing. The sentiment expressed after Judge Lindsey's lecture was that if all the other numbers were as good as his, this year's course would be the "best ever." And in Alton Packard we have the man to uphold the record.

The Syracuse University Band was recently put upon a permanent basis by giving each player selected a scholarship valued at $60 a year, the number of scholarships being limited to twenty.
