Program for Pennsylvania Day.

Regular college exercises will be suspended for the day except the chapel assembly at 10 a. m. instead of 8, and dress parade, at which attendance will be required.

10 a. m. Assembly in the Auditorium for a short program consisting of music and extempore addresses. The invited guests of the day will occupy the stage. The visitors from the vicinity will occupy the vacant seats given to them at the Sunday service. The seats occupied by students will be kept for them and every man is urged to be in his place. Nothing at the college is so likely to impress the visitors as the sight of the student body assembled in the Auditorium.

11 a. m. Dress Parade. Assembly will sound immediately after the close of the exercises in the Auditorium.

1:30 p. m. Annual football game between teams representing the Freshman and the Sophomore classes. The game will be called promptly so that visitors may leave on the afternoon trains.

The Cross Country Run.

The cross country run which will be held on Saturday, December 11, should be more successful than last year. Several additional prizes have been secured this year and will be exhibited in the Athletic Store window, in the near future.

Special attention is again called to the Class Team work. The first five men of each class to finish will count for score, and these men will comprise the class team. The number of entries is unlimited and every one who comes out will be excused from drill. The runners meet every afternoon at four o'clock at the Armory.

Liberal handicaps will be allowed to those deserving them and to those who have never run before. Handicap entries will close Wednesday,

Dec. 8 and all men entering after this date must start from scratch.

Every one who has had experience or feels that he can make good, is urged to come out. There is no better form of exercise, and the prizes should be additional incentive. Make it a point to see the Physical Director at once and receive the proper instructions.

The Pharsonians.

The Pharsonians have been hard at work for several weeks on this year's performance. From present indications it will be up to the standard and will probably surpass the shows of former years.

The following men have been selected to date:

Interlocutor: J. E. Wray '10.

End Men—C. A. Eichelberger '10, W. L. Nelson '11, E. L. Tyson '11, H. Frantz '12, W. L. McCoy '10.

Circle—G. E. Ogilvie '10, L. E. Swartz '11, A. P. Gray '12, L. L. Bloom '10, J. P. Colburn '10, C. W. Kunkle '10.

The show will be presented here on the 11th of December, and on the 13th the troop will leave for an eastern trip. The towns have not been definitely chosen as yet, but the performance will probably be given in all those towns were it was given last year. This fact in itself is a good advertisement for the show.

Another end man is yet to be chosen, and the circle when completed will contain about fifteen men. Anybody who has any ability either as an end man or a circle man should see Bill McCoy at once. The same is true of men who have any good specialties.

Senior Electrical Trip.

The 1910 Electrics are making plans for their inspection trip, which will be made during the week preceding Christmas vacation. Their route will include Philadelphia, Trenton, Newark and New York.
