

farther down passes "Andy" Lytle's farmhouse. It continues on this road past "Andy" Lytle's to the shed on the left of the road below "Andy's" farm, thence cross country over the hill to Allen street, turning to the right at the avenue below Beaver avenue to Pugh street, down Pugh street to College avenue and up College avenue to the finish. The distance is approximately four miles. The course is an ideal cross country course not only for the runners but for the spectators as well, for at the brow of the hill on Allen street the runners can be seen over half the distance.

Our Athletes at Pittsburg.

When our team arrived at East Liberty station, Pittsburg, on Wednesday before the Thanksgiving game the players were quickly whisked away in taxicabs to the Pittsburg County Club where they were kept in the best of style that the Smoky City affords. Just before the game at Forbes Field they left the County Club, and after it all went to the Fort Pitt Hotel for the annual football banquet. That was a rousing affair just as the State smoker the night before at the same place had been. At the banquet the football men were pleased to have such loyal old athletes as these present: A. C. Read, football captain in '92; L. R. Scholl, captain in '00; Earl "Effervescent" Hewitt, captain in '01; Ed Whitworth, leader in '03, and Carl Forkum one year later, as well as numerous other football stars; Prof. J. P. Jackson;
