A Penn State Civic Club.

Any senior or junior interested in the organization of a Civic Club is invited to come to the Engineering Club Room on Thursday night, Dec. 5 at 7:30 o'clock. The club will be organized with the object of becoming a member of the Intercollegiate Civic League, which has branches in each of the leading colleges and universities. The work of the club will be to train college men to take an active part in politics, to discover the college man's place in present day politics, to study the problems of present day politics and to develop the college man's relations to these problems.

The date of the Pharsonian Minstrels has been changed from Dec. 11 to Dec. 13
