E. C. Mercer in the Spring

"Ted" Mercer who was expected here recently to conduct a series of meetings, was obliged to cancel his engagement upon the advice of his physician. He and Tom Farmer had just completed a series of thirty six meetings at Cornell, meeting with great success, but the strain was too great on Mr. Mercer and he was obliged to take a rest. He will be with us in the spring, but the exact date is not known at present.

F. B. Brunyate ex-'10, is employed in the U. S. Forest Service at Missoula, Mont.

C. T. Reyes '07, is the supervising principal of schools at Corozal, Porto Rico.

R. L. Patterson '10, who is at his home, in Clearfield convalescing from the result of an accident in the laboratory, is expected back next week.

The Pharsonians will carry thirty-five men on the trip next week.
