and "Dutch" Hermann play their last game of football under State's colors. "Larry," the resourceful, thinking quarterback and captain, whose drop kicks and running back of punts put him above almost every backfield man in the East; "Bull," the genial big line-plunger who was a tower of strength on offense and defense alike, who played best when his smile was broadest and whose loyal gridiron work lasting through four years here will go down from generation to generation of Penn State students; "Heff," who, with Larry and Bull, completed the finest backfield trio State ever had in one class, all having played four years here—"Heff" with all his speed, weight and cleverness; "Shorty," the long, lightning end who played with every ounce of strength he possessed; and lastly, "Dutch"—a quarterback who would have starred on almost any college eleven in the country this year but was well satisfied to be a substitute for the redoubtable "Larry" in several of the games this season—"Dutch," the reliable punter and catcher of punts, with the speed of the wind in running back kicks and a coolness second only to Vorhis in running the team; will we ever forget these five loyal players? There will be a great, gaping, hole left by this quintette in State's team next year, but long after that their performances will be remembered.

"Shorty" Piollet

Financially the season was a great success, a result accomplished chiefly by manager McKee and graduate manager G. R. Meek '92. For the first time in years our Athletic Association finds itself out of debt and ready to continue the best kind of a year in athletics—one so well started by Larry Vorhis's undefeated 1909 football team.

Who Let the Cat Out?

We learn at the last minute that the special feature of the Pharonians next Monday will be the girls from the Ladies' Cottage. Fourteen fair co-eds will appear in an original act with various costumes. They will illustrate an act with Alec Gray III in "The Pipe O'Briar."

A Correction.

We beg to announce that through a slight misunderstanding, the name of Mr. Hall M. Crosman '04, instead of Mr. Louis Hall Crosman ex-'03, was announced as the future husband of Miss Elizabeth Boal Thompson.
