The Freshmen Win.

In a rough and interesting game, the freshmen defeated the sophomores 27 to 5 in the interclass league game played Tuesday evening. The playing resembled football and individual playing too often replaced team work. The sophomores were weak on the defense while the freshmen missed many easy shots for baskets. Armsby and Dunsmore, the captains of the two teams, were out of the game, the former with a bad knee and the latter with la grippe.

Mauthe and Posey, of the freshmen team, excelled in gathering the points, each being credited with four baskets. Fouls were plentiful and Wright, of the freshmen, threw five free shots. The freshmen substituted men freely, nine men playing at different times during the game. The sophomore team was composed of Loveridge, Eppers, Coopy, Sheldon and Thompson with Doster as substitute. The freshman team was as follows: Posey, Wright, Martz, Vosburg and Mauthe, with Hartz, Rodgers, Mabee and Murphy as substitutes. "Al" Schein refereed the game.

Christmas Cheer From "Judge."

Gladys—"A girl begins to hang up her mistletoe as soon as she gets too old to hang up her stocking."

De Garry—"I've noticed, though, that some girls never get too old to hang up the mistletoe."
