

The prizes were won as follows

First, F. J. Harrison, '12, bath robe donated by Harry Sauers.

Second—N. D. Maddock, '10, fancy vest donated by J. P. Haggman.

Third—A. F. Fisher, '13, sweater donated by the State College Supply company.

Fourth—J. H. Reed, '13, sweater donated by C. W. Smith.

Fifth—J. A. Fulkman, '13, pair of shoes, donated by the Athletic Store.

Sixth—B. D. Watts, '12, umbrella, donated by Sheasly & Gentzel.

Seventh—R. R. Woods, '12, watch fob, donated by C. E. Shuey.

Eighth—H. L. Mathers, '11, pipe, donated by A. H. Knisely.

Ninth—H. A. Lum, '13, pipe, donated by George T. Graham.

Tenth—F. M. Beagle, '12, order for one half dozen photos, donated by W. W. Smith.

Eleventh—F. C. McFarland, '12, fountain pen, donated by Meek Brothers.

Twelfth—H. Transue, '12, pen knife, donated by H. D. Meek Hardware company.

Thirteenth—E. Glavin, '12, photo of winning team, donated by the Athletic Association.

The other prizes were class numerals for the winning team and the first five men who finished. The winning team, of the sophomore class, was composed of Harrison, Watts, Woods, Beagle and McFarland.

The merchants of the town are certainly to be commended for their generosity in giving the prizes, and the winners greatly appreciate their spirit.

Her Celebration.

Mrs. Gramercy—"Are you going to have a Christmas tree this year?"

Mrs. Park—"Gracious, no! They are as much a nuisance as children. But you must call and see the cunning little stocking I'm going to hang up for Fido."

Sim, the clothier

Correct dress for men

State College representative

W. L. McCoy, 328 Main building

Bellefonte

Over forty men are trying for the wrestling team at Columbia.

Stanford seniors are planning a series of senior smokers.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute claims the football championship of the South.

"Here's a job for Burbank."

"What?"

"Training a Christmas tree to sprout its own presents."—Louisville Courier Journal.

Mrs. Harlem—"I thought you said your husband was going to swear off smoking the first of the year, and here you are giving him a box of Christmas cigars."

Mrs. Bronx—"I'm going to help the resolution along. That's why I bought these cigars."

Owing to the fact that the last Saturday of the month falls on Christmas day, there will be no smoker of the Pittsburg Alumni.