Y. M. C. A. News.

At the great convention held in Rochester during the holidays Penn State was represented by 18 delegates and Dr. Sparks. This convention is held once in four years and is international in character. A few statistics follow to show the number in attendance: students, 2678; professors and teachers, 329; missionaries, 165; secretaries of missionary boards, 95; general secretaries, 105; international, state and provincial secretaries, 78; European delegates, 3; others, 155; total, 3624. There were 722 colleges, 49 states and provinces and 29 countries represented. The delegates pledged themselves to the raising of $86,000 in the next four years for missionaries, and 92 men volunteered to devote their lives to mission work.

The services next Sunday will be led by Tom Piollet. There will be some special music by the college orchestra.

The Tuesday evening prayer meetings are becoming popular. Come out and see for yourself. Alec Gray leads next week.

The Freshmen should not forget their Bible class in the Old Chapel at 10 o'clock every Sunday.

The Short Course men have a class at 9 o'clock every Sunday at the Agricultural Building.

The Penn State Association is the second largest in the world. Make it the largest.

Musn't Say the Naughty Word.

President A. Ross Hill, of the University of Missouri recently criticised the use of the word "hell" in a popular rooters' song, and this is the way the students have revamped the song:

Cheer, cheer, the gang's all here,
Mustn't say the naughty word,
Mustn't say the naughty word.
Cheer, cheer, the gang's all here;
Mustn't say the naughty word now.
