The New York Dinner.

The New York Alumni Association held their midwinter meeting on December 30th at Reisenweber's Cafe, making the occasion a dinner with the New York club of undergraduates as guests from the college.

Mr. J. P. Kottcamp '04, president of the Association, acted as toastmaster. The guest of honor was Dr. W. A. Buckhout, senior professor at college. Toasts were given by many of the members, all paying tribute to Dr. Buckhout and the influence he had on the lives of the alumni when they were in college.

S. H. Keyes '11, as secretary of the club, spoke for the ten or more undergraduates present. "Larry" Vorhis, "Heff" Hirshman, and "Pop" Golden were there and were called upon for short speeches.

New Year's Eve at State College.

The "Club of the Survivors of the Fittest," composed of students remaining at College over the holidays, held their annual banquet on New Year's Eve at the "Grand Hotel" McAllister.

There were fourteen students present and each contributed their share towards making an interesting program by excellent and original music, and songs in Russian, Spanish

Jewish and English. The toasts were all unique and very interesting, being on subjects relating to life in the different localities from whence the members came. S. A. Silverberg was toastmaster, calling upon each of the following men: A. C. Adams, P. B. Castro, E. O. Ehrhart, E. F. Eldred, E. B. Lecke, M. Margarida, E. G. Morgan, A. H. McElrath, V. M. Peraza, E. Srednik, T. Srednik, E. Stearn, I. S. Teitelbaum and M. Zamorschin.
