

ing 9 to 9 at the close of this period. Toward the end of the second half the Juniors put in fresh men and managed to annex a few more goals than their opponents. Had the Sophomores put up the article of basketball they produced in this game earlier in the season they would not be occupying the cellar position at present.

The interclass league standing to date is as follows:

	Won	Lost	Pct
Juniors	3	0	1.000
Seniors	2	1	.667
Freshmen	1	2	.333
Sophomores	0	3	.000

There are no games scheduled for examination week, the next game being on February 3rd when 1911 plays 1913.

The Wrestling Meet.

From many closely contested bouts in the Armory, on Monday night, the wrestling team that will represent State against Penn next Saturday evening, was finally chosen. In order that the team be successful, it will necessarily have financial obligations that must be met and an admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged to witness the contest for the purpose of defraying these expenses. Manager McNary has made arrangements for grand stands which will have a seating capacity of about 300. In addition to the general admission, ten cents will be charged to each person occupying these seats, which will be reserved. The event is scheduled for 8:45 and it is every State man's duty to turn out and support his team. State's
