"The Gay Soubrette."

For the title of his adaptation for the Thespians, Mr Foster has decided upon "The Gay Soubrette" which sounds good. The following is a personnel of the characters:—

Richard Corker—of Kerosene City and Paris—owner of a racing stable at Longchamps.

Reginald Corker—his son—an Oxford graduate.

Pansy Corker—his daughter—convent bred.

Jack Hymen—a young American—manager of the Ritzboden Haus.

Herr Wilhelm Showman—an impetuous impressario.

Kid Knapp—an overweight jockey.

Yankee Mike—the young whirlwind pugilist.

Algernon—Mimi's little brother—that's all

Frau Ziegler—German housewife and nurse.

Mimi—a carefree soubrette.

Chorus:—

Act I Villagers and peasants of Ritzboden Hotel attendants.

Act II. Chappies and roof garden girls

Scene:—

Act I. Lawn of Hotel Ritzboden in Swiss Alps.

Act II. Ante-room of Cafe de L'Opera, New York.

Time.—The Present.

There are sixteen distinct musical numbers, all new and catchy. It will undoubtedly be welcome news to all to know that Mr Charles Leon Downing, who so successfully coached the men last year, has been re engaged as coach for this year.

About the first of February there will be another preliminary trial for the chorus and all men who have not turned out yet should send their names to Mr. Foster at once. The time and place for this trial will be announced later. At this time also if the copies of the play arrive, there will be trials for the caste. The week following, Mr. Downing will conduct the final trials and choose both caste and chorus.

Some Good Men Coming.

Never before have we had such opportunities as the Young Men's Christian Association is providing for us this spring in the way of strong and noted speakers. Mr. Buchman has just completed final arrangements whereby we are to have prominent men talk to us every Sunday evening for two months. Some of these men will spend several days here and will hold group meetings at the different fraternity houses and in the dormitories, but a few can spend only a few hours, sacrificing valuable time needed in their business to make the trip.

The speaker next Sunday will be Dr. Kenneth Latourette, a senior society man at Yale, who raised the Bible study attendance there up to 1000. He is a friend of Henry Wright and Bill Dewitt and is a very popular man at Yale. He is now a student traveling secretary and will ultimately go to China. He was one of the speakers at the recent Northfield Conference. He comes here on Saturday, remaining until Tuesday, and all fraternities or other men who want him to speak at a group meeting should make arrangements with "Pete" Johnson or with Mr. Buchman at 273 Main.

A Sewerage and Drainage System.

J. E. Lenker, '07 and W. S. Baver, '08 are at present engaged in taking data for the mapping out of roads and campus buildings in order to plan a sewerage and drainage system as suggested and endorsed by the College. The work is under the supervision of Prof. E. D. Wasker, who has been in conference with the town officials, and the plan is to outline the entire system and then procure estimates for the work.
