College Women.

Miss M. Cary Thomas, dean of Bryn Mawr College, chairman of a committee that has taken statistics on college women in the United States, reports that when men and women are educated together there is no greater number of marriages than when the sexes are educated separately; that 778 out of 1000 college women enjoy excellent health; only eight college women out of 1000 have ill health; that the health of women improves while in college; that college women in general have better health than women who do not attend college; that college women marry stronger men, and they choose more wisely.—Orange and Blue.

Friday Evening Lectures.

A series of Friday evening lectures, during the early part of the second semester is in preparation by the school of liberal arts, and will be presented by the instructors in that school.

LET those who care to or who are obliged to wear evening clothes have a care to their fitting qualities as well as their authoritative style. Benjamin full dress and tuxedo suits have the distinction of being sold on Broadway to critical New Yorkers and in our own city they are being welcomed by men who realize the many advantages to be gained by wearing fashionable New York styles, expertly tailored in the shops of Alfred Benjamin & Company, New York City
