

C. A meeting in the Old Chapel at 6 30 o'clock. The following article is quoted from a Rochester paper at the time of the recent convention there: "Prof. Harlan Beach of Yale is one of the most popular men in the convention; those who have not had the pleasure of meeting him before are well acquainted with him through his published works." He is the author of about fifty books.

The treasurer is anxious that all men pay up their dues as soon as possible.

Dr Willson on Saturday spoke at nine meetings and several interviews, meeting about 2000 people.

Mr. Rentschler Resigns.

Mr. M. J. Rentschler, who for several years has been an efficient instructor of chemistry, especially in qualitative analysis, has resigned his position and has accepted the position as head chemist for the Scientific Station of Pure Products, 21 Whitehall St., New York City.

Some time before Christmas a very flattering offer was made Mr. Rentschler by the above-named company but he did not accept until a week ago, and now he is busily engaged in his new work.

Mr. Rentschler was graduated from this institution in 1904. For a while he was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad, but at the opening of the second semester in January, 1905 Mr. Rentschler accepted a position here as instructor in chemistry and he has indeed filled this position ever since in a most acceptable manner. During the college year 1907-1908 he went to Germany to take up advanced work at the University of Goettingen.
