

Chicken and Waffles.

About one hundred members of the electrical engineering society, consisting of approximately 50 members of the faculty, assembled in McAllister Hall last Friday evening to do justice to a chicken and waffle dinner. The occasion was in honor of Dr. A. S. McAlistter '98 who lectured all week to our senior and junior electrical students on alternating current phenomena.

Howard Agee, acting as toastmaster, called upon each member of the faculty, upon Dr. McAlistter, and upon several of the students for speeches. All were united in expressing their appreciation and that of the whole class of students, of the work Dr. McAlistter had covered during the week. The bright outlook for the electrical department students at present and in the future was revealed by Prof. Kinsie in the announcement that there were at present more requests in his hands for our graduates than was ever known in the history of the school.

The engagement of Dr. McAlistter, to be married in the near future, was announced in the course of speeches, and plans are now being made to entertain both the Dr. and Mrs. McAlistter next year.

The Freshman Banquet.

Very quietly at 6.30 o'clock last Sunday evening the Freshmen began to wander towards Lemont, quite unknown to the Sophomores, however, for the "banquet was on". The train didn't leave until 8 o'clock, and by that time there were some Sophomores there, but not enough to make any disturbance.

The banquet was held at ten o'clock Tuesday night in the famous old Park Hotel at Williamsport, and it is estimated that about 350 Freshmen were there, including the speakers. They had big parade through the streets of the town at 1.30 in the afternoon.
