

As has been stated before, the club is very fortunate in having again secured the services of Mr. Chas. Leon Downing of Philadelphia as coach, to whom a great deal of praise is due for so ably coaching the men in last year's performance.

The show will probably be given here either on Monday or Tuesday, March 21 or 22, just before the Easter vacation begins. The troupe will then disband to reassemble in Bloomsburg on the evening of March 29. It is not yet positively known just what route will be followed, but Manager Pollock has several places on the string, among which may be mentioned Sunbury, Johnstown, Wilkes-Barre, Clearfield, Bellefonte, and several others. The trip will probably wind up in Bellefonte Saturday evening, the 2nd of April.

The School of Mines and Metallurgy

As a part of the extension work which is being conducted by the School of Mines and Metallurgy in cooperation with the Y. M. C. A. Mining Institutes, Dean Crane has during the month delivered lectures in Latrobe, Castie Shannon, Irwin, Johnstown, Brownsville, Monongahela City, Scottsdale and Punxsutawney.

A small concentrating plant has been installed in the Ore Dressing Laboratories. It consists of a set of jigs a number of different types of hydraulic classifiers, a Wilfley table, and an automatic ore feeder.

The whole plant is motor driven, and adds greatly to the range of work that may be done in ore concentration in the laboratories.

The School has recently received two large shipments of ores for use in the laboratory work, one being a lead ore consisting of Galena in calcite, and containing a small amount of blende, donated by the Canada Smelting Co. from their Old-Frontenac mine near Kingston Ontario, and the other a carload of gold-bearing

Let those who care to or who are obliged to wear evening clothes have a care to their fitting qualities as well as their authoritative style. Benjamin full dress and tuxedo suits have the distinction of being sold on Broadway to critical New Yorkers and in our own city they are being welcomed by men who realize the many advantages to be gained by wearing fashionable New York styles, expertly tailored in the shops of Alfred Benjamin & Company, New York City
