

Wrestlers Lose to Navy.

Last Saturday afternoon the Navy grapplers won from ours by the score of 4 1-2 to 2 1 2 bouts. Navy had a very busy day, with a basket ball game, a gymnastic meet, and a wrestling meet all scheduled for the one day. It was Navy's day, for every one of the events was won by a clean margin.

The wrestling victory can be ascribed to the superior form and condition of Navy's little men, for they took the first four bouts. Elder, Knot, and Schofield secured clean falls for the Navy, while Captain Gilbert, of the Navy, was given the decision over Captain Brown, in the 135 pounds class, on account of his superior work and aggressiveness.

The record winning was in the lightest class, where Elder won over Glanville, with a bar and chancery hold, in two minutes and twenty seconds.

Our victories were in the 158 pounds, and heavy weight classes. Very showed much skill and clearly had the better of the argument, winning the decision on form and aggressiveness from Sowell.

The draw was, in the 175 pounds class, where Weems, of the Navy, met Lesh. An extra three minutes failed to disclose superiority on the part of either of the men and the match was declared a draw.

Talbot secured the only clean fall for State, after eight minutes of hard work, on a bar and chancery, changing to a crotch and half Nelson.

Summary:

115 pound class—Elder, Navy, won from Glanville, Penn State, in 2 minutes 20 seconds, with a bar and chancery hold.

125 pound class—Knot, Navy, won from Brundage, Penn State, in 6 minutes 15 seconds, with a bar and chancery hold.

135 pound class—Gilbert (Capt.), Navy, won from Brown, Penn State

Comment from Allegheny:

"On Monday the Penn State team won by the score of 34 to 20, while on the next evening Bucknell was walloped 48 to 20. The games were as fair as games can be on foreign floors, and the State defeat can be ascribed to nothing but the superiority of the winning team, although it is the opinion that if State plays here a victory will be recorded for Allegheny.

The games were in decided contrast, because at State the playing was clean and fair, while at Bucknell everything was reversed. Even the the crowd got into the game, hissing at every opportunity, a sure way of showing poor spirit.

Father O'Hanlon's Lecture.

On Saturday Feb. 26, at seven-thirty o'clock in the Auditorium, Father A. O'Hanlon of Bellefonte will deliver the seventh lecture in the Free Lecture Course. His subject will be "Art Studies in Shakespeare." In the course of his lecture he will give readings from "Henry VIII," "Julius Caesar," and "The Merchant of Venice." Those who heard Father O'Hanlon last year at his lecture on Macbeth need no further inducement to be at the Auditorium next Saturday evening. He is a Shakespearean scholar, a
