

B. G. Smith form a board of directors.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors resolutions were adopted to induce the college to publish a pamphlet of information for prospective students. Interesting programs are being provided for the meetings in the way of addresses by General Beaver, and Dr. Sparks, and by "stunts" by the different nationalities. A Russian night will be given in the near future, and later on, a Porto Rican and a Cuban night. These meetings are open to all.

The club at present has about 31 members representing 10 nationalities. The following remarks made by one of the members expresses the sentiment and the spirit of the organization:

"Let us cut out all national feelings. Remember that in signing this constitution we have pledged ourselves to uphold that principle, 'above all nations, is humanity.'

"Let us respect each other's opinions and ideas. Remember that we have been reared among different peoples with different costumes, ideas, etc.; that what seems perfectly natural for some is ridiculous for others. By close contact with each other all our traditions and everything will have to go, but remember that if we want to be cosmopolitans we have to sacrifice ourselves.

"Let us not say anything that would hurt the other fellow's pride

"Let us think twice before we speak once, and see that what we say will mean something.

"Let us cut out all jealousy. That is the seat of all trouble."

Juniors Still in Frnt.

In the most important game yet played in the interclass league, the Juniors won from the Seniors last Saturday night by a score of 18 to 12 and thus made secure their lead on first place. "Seven all" was the score at the end of the first half and

LET those who care to or who are obliged to wear evening clothes have a care to their fitting qualities as well as their authoritative style. Benjamin full dress and tuxedo suits have the distinction of being sold on Broadway to critical New Yorkers and in our own city they are being welcomed by men who realize the many advantages to be gained by wearing fashionable New York styles, expertly tailored in the shops of Alfred Benjamin & Company, New York City.
