

Perhaps he could combine the duties of secretary of the Alumni Association with that of business agent of the Student Building; some employment might also be found for him on the college staff.

Above all we need a leader at once. Last year the graduating class gave the first impetus to the enterprise by a gift of $1000. This is more progress than we ever made before in the undertaking. We must not allow the enthusiasm to wane. We must strike while the iron is hot, and we must keep it hot by striking.

Where will the leader be found? Perhaps some suggestions from the alumni will help locate the proper man.

Alumni Take Notice.

"It is a self evident fact that The Pennsylvania State College is very much in need of a Social Hall or General Club House. It is also just as evident that such a Club House will not spring up of its own accord.

"Eight years have elapsed since plans were drawn for a Social Hall to be located at State College, and in those eight years little or no progress has been recorded.

"Waiting apparently does not produce the desired result. Consequently there is but one other way if Students, Faculty and Alumni feel that the need must be met.

"Those who should cooperate are the Students, Faculty, Alumni and Trustees. The question of definite action with regard to a Social Hall should be brought before the next regular meeting of the Alumni Association and an endeavor made to have a committee appointed by the Association to confer with committees from the Students, Faculty and Trustees on ways and means."
