The Collegian has received a letter from W. R. Miles '03, and we quote as follows:

"Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Crossman are paying a short visit to Mrs. Crossman's sister, Mrs G. M. Sellers, at East Helena, Montana. Mrs. Crossman was Miss Thompson of Lemont. While both the bride and groom have slight colds, they seem to be enjoying their honeymoon here in the crisp mountain air. The mercury registered 36 degrees below, this morning, Washington's birthday."

The Glee and Mandolin Club Concert

The next thing on the program is the concert to be given next Saturday evening by the Glee and Mandolin Clubs, in the Auditorium. As announced on the posters, the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the free lecture course. Such a worthy cause deserves the best support of the entire student body and the village as well. The very elaborate series of lectures that we were so fortunate to have this year cost considerable, about $400 being needed at present to cover all expenses.

Both the Glee and Mandolin Clubs have been hard at work since Christ-
