

Use A Razor That Doesn't Hurt

Some razors skip light hairs and pull heavy ones; some split hairs and leave a rough face; others shave middling close but at the expense of some good skin you'd like to keep. A its name in every sense or the word, the Graham Building is the "barber shop," the "strikers" were the students. President Spangler was a junior electrical, Chief of Police Weaver, was the varsity football man, Lieutenant Talbott was Lee Talbott, the giant heavyweight wrestler, the Parker Mfg. Co. was from "Peeny's" shop in the Eng. Bldg., the cars were the college "hacks," the bombs were paper bags full of water, thrown by senior Mechanicals and the fire department was merely a few studies.

The German Play.

The strong interest which has been steadily growing among the members of the Deutscher Verein is at present enthusiastically centered upon the annual play which is to be given in the Auditorium on March 19. At the regular meeting on Friday each member received a block of tickets for distribution among the students. Special meetings are being held two or three times a week for the purpose of practicing German songs which are to be sung on play night. This is a new departure which should be very attractive.

The Play Committee has made all necessary arrangements, and reports that everything is going smoothly. Under the splendid coaching of Miss Simmons and Mr. Boucke the cast is rapidly nearing completion. The faithful and efficient work of the coaches is responsible in great measure for the admirable progress of the cast. Among the particularly bright stars are the members from the Ladies' Cottage. Their work is very good, and they are sure to make a decided hit on Saturday night.

Although this is but the second play given by the Verein, it is not an experiment. It is a finished comedy, with most laughable and attractive scenes, and one filled with acting. For those who are slightly shaky in their German there will be
