

I. C. W. A. Action.

The Intercollegiate Wrestling Association turned down our petition for admission this year on the ground that our eligibility rules are too lax. Manager McNary satisfactorily answered their other objections.

On March 16 a special meeting of the association was called and our petition was turned down on the ground that we were too far away from the other schools comprising the league.

At the next meeting held on March 20, Manager McNary proved to them that this objection was poorly taken for we are closer to Cornell than any of the other colleges, and nearer to Penn than two of the others. On an average, we are 276 miles away from every college in the association, against Cornell's 324 miles. Dartmouth, Harvard, Annapolis and Brown were invited to join the association and Yale withdrew from it. Dartmouth is on an average 375 miles away from the colleges in the association, Harvard 284 miles and Brown 258 miles away. The only objection which could not be answered was the one year eligibility rule, which it seems we will be forced to adopt sooner or later in all branches of athletics if we wish to compete with these colleges. A motion was made to admit us to the association but it was voted down by Princeton and Cornell delegates, who were instructed to do so by their faculty athletic committee. A motion was made and carried that our fac-
