

The Freshman Win.

The local basket ball season was brought to a close on Friday night when the Freshmen five defeated the Sophomores in the annual class game by the decisive score of 31-10. The game was fast and full of ginger owing to the hard playing done by both sides, but no unnecessary roughness was displayed by either team.

The game started in whirlwind fashion, and tho several fouls were made by both sides, no scoring was done until Captain Vosburg caged a clean one for the Freshmen from the middle of the floor. Wright added one more by throwing a foul; while Mauthe made it five by throwing one from mid floor. Captain Armsby then made the first point for the Sophs by throwing a foul.

Goals by Posey and Wright further enlarged the freshman score, while Gotshall made two more points for the Sophomores by making a nice field goal. Shots by Hartz and Posey followed in quick succession and Wright made his second basket by dropping one in from a difficult position. Posey added another goal after dribbling the ball down the floor, and Hartz quickly added another one, making the score 19 to 3 in favor of the Freshmen.

Etters who was substituted for Gage, caged a nice one from the middle of the floor for the Sophomores just before the whistle blew, making the final score for the first half 1913-19, 1912-5.

The teams appeared on the floor for the second half much refreshed; the Sophomores with their "never give up" spirit, and the Freshmen with the determination to make the score as large as possible.

Wright opened the scoring for this half by making a good field goal and two fouls, while Armsby added one for the Sophomores by throwing a foul.

Tech Given a Walloping.

In seven and one-half innings our baseball team smothered the Carnegie Tech nine in the opening game of the 1910 season on New Beaver Field last Saturday. Leidick and Piolette both twirled in excellent form and the visitors lone tally came on Blythe's bad "peg," after he had made a great stop, when Fullmer made a timely single to the outfield. Eberlein, Vorhis and Blythe each enjoyed a field day in the batting line and in running the bases, "Spi's" long two-base hit with the bases full being one of the main features of a rather uninteresting game. Tech tied State's team in '07 by a score of 3 to 3, but was beaten in '08 by the overwhelming score of 24 to 1 and last year the tally was 10 to 0 against the Pittsburgers.
