

COLLEGE NOTES.

Professor Willard will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Stellar Evolution", in the Old Chapel, on Saturday evening, April 16, at 7:30. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

The regular chapel exercises this morning, April 14, 1910, were followed by a short program commemorative of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of the Hon. Justin S. Morrill, the author of the act of Congress through which the so-called "land-grant" colleges in the various states were established. By act of Council of Administration, the regular college exercises for the first hour were omitted.

The address of each of the following men, former students of the college, is missing. Any person knowing the present location of any of them will confer a favor by notify the Secretary to the President: Earl E. Adams; A. H. Berger; Charles E. Beugler; James J. Connelly; Albert F. Dole; F. J. Eaton; John T. Foley; John N. Forker; G. A. Graffins; L. B. Grindlay; George T. Haldeman; Walter E. Hersh; John D. Jones; Israel H. Kraft; Stewart A. Long; W. H. McConaughy; J. H. Painter; Theo. V. Perry; George Pierce; Joseph Ray; J. A. Sharp; James A. Stephens; Frank M. Torrance; C. T. Wade; P. A. Walgen; Silas H. Yorks.

Deutscher Verein Meeting.

At the regular meeting of the Deutscher Verein on Friday evening, the main feature of the program was an address by Mrs. G. G. Pond, describing the student celebration in Germany on Bismark's eightieth birthday. Her talk pictured in a most vivid and interesting manner this remarkable celebration, the only one of its kind in the world's history. All the members present expressed their appreciation of Mrs. Pond's address in a unanimous vote of thanks.

The program committee for the next meeting promises an interesting and entertaining evening, and all members are urged to be present.
