

PRESIDENTS' CONFERENCE

Student Association Representatives to Convene Here This Week.

The newly elected Presidents of the Student Associations of the State will meet in their nineteenth annual conference at State College, April 21-24.

This Conference is distinctively for Student Association Presidents. Problems, principles and methods of Association work are presented in the most helpful and thorough manner by experts. Ample opportunity is given for discussion. Training, fellowship, enlarged vision, inspiration are the products of this Conference. The standard of achievement in the State wide work for the coming year is determined largely by the men of this Conference.

The program follows:

Thursday evening (seven o'clock). Opening address, Dr. E. E. Sparks; Christian Students United, J. Lovell Murray.

Friday morning (nine o'clock). The Association's Obligation to New Students, Frank N. D. Buchman; The President as an Executive Officer, Wm. P. Roberts; The President's Program, E. E. Bohner.

Friday afternoon (two o'clock). What the Student Associations must do for Foreign Missions, J. Lovell Murray; Summer Conferences, F. O. Koehler.

Friday evening (seven o'clock). Gospel Teams, Dr. Theodore S. Henderson.

Saturday morning. The Promotion of Systematic Bible Study, Clayton S. Cooper; Outreach into the Community, Edward E. Bohner.

Saturday afternoon. Essentials for Successful Religious Meetings, Clayton S. Cooper; [Mountain Hike] the entire conference.

Saturday evening (seven o'clock). Winning Men, Dr. Theodore S. Henderson.

It is not difficult to interest careful dressing men in the clothes that we are now handling. All we ask for is the chance to show you and as an inducement we will pay your day's expenses for purchases in our store amounting to $15. Price range for suits $15 to $35. The line handled is the Benjamin of New York, known throughout the land as the best.
