The Cornell Game To-day.

This afternoon captain McCleary's nine will battle with Cornell at Ithaca. Yesterday the team left here in fairly good shape considering the lack of practice owing to the prolonged rainy weather recently and the unusually large number of men out of the game following the four game journey in the East.

Our teams have been very successful against the Cornellians in the past. Last year's game was called off because of rain but in the three previous years, two out of three games resulted in Blue and White victories. Always our nine has put up a grand article of baseball at Ithaca as the past record of contests shows:

Year	Score	State pitcher
1906	State 1 Cornell 2 (16 innings)	McIlveen
1907	State 3 Cornell 1 (17 innings)	"Bob" Vorhis
1908	State 4 Cornell 2	Mittinger

But one game will be played on the Cornell trip and the same is true of the Princeton jaunt. The Tigers will be met in their lair next Wednesday and the outcome of this game is just as anxiously awaited here as that of the contest at Ithaca to-day.

At Princeton manager Wilcox had the misfortune last spring to see the game prevented by rain as happened also at Ithaca. However ten contests have been pulled off with the orange and black and our nine has won fifty percent of these. All were played in the New Jersey town and it will be seen that five of the last seven struggles proved the superiority of the Blue and White:

Year	Score	State captain
1895	State 3 Princeton 4	"Bill" Stuart
1896	State 5 Princeton 18	"Goat" Walker
1897	State 1 Princeton 11	"Cap" Hayes
1899	State 4 Princeton 3	"Eng" Johnson
1900	State 4 Princeton 9	"Dan" Miller
1904	State 8 Princeton 1	"Jack" Elder
1905	State 8 Princeton 6	"Harmony" Ray
1906	State 1 Princeton 0	"Irish" McIlveen
1907	State 1 Princeton 2	"Joe" Mason
1908	State 4 Princeton 3	"Burde" Cree
