

"Wupper's" Team Ahead."

There was a commotion in the staid town of Bellefonte last Saturday when "Wupper" Gillespie, of far famed baseball ability, pitted his team against the Academy boys. Glenn, Bowman, Baetz, Caruthers and Mason, of the Junior team; Sheldon and Manion of the Sophomores; Nelson and the renowned Gillespie himself completed the redoubtable "State" organization. It is to be regretted that rain prevented the completion of the game for Baetz was in good form, striking out six men in four innings, and the visitors hit hard. Bowman's double scored two runs while Manion and Sheldon hit well too; "Wupper" did some daring base running also. Nelson's catch in right field and Mason's good stop of a wide, low throw at first were other features while Smith's three bagger resulted in a score for the Academy.
