

OPEN AIR MASS MEETING

A Thousand Students Assembled in Front of the Auditorium to Witness Awarding of Varsity "S".

The extremely warm weather last Monday night opened the way for the permanent establishment of spring and fall open air mass meetings. At least two thirds of the entire student body located themselves comfortably on the Auditorium steps and the surrounding grass to participate in one of the most interesting and successful meetings ever held on State's campus. President D. K. Sloan formally opened the session with a discussion of the new form of awarding the "S" to varsity men and the plan, which was unique and appropriate, was accorded splendid applause. Following this speech, Professor Agee spoke of "winning teams" and highly complimented the football and basketball teams of 1910.

The next speaker Hugh S. Taylor, who has the distinction of being the first State man that crossed Penn's goal line, dwelt forcibly on the changes that have brought about better conditions for State and lauded the spirit of our College in such terms as to indelibly stamp them on the minds of all those who had the pleasure of hearing his talk.

Dr. Sparks then formally presented the certificates to the men who so ably kept us in the foremost ranks in the Athletic world through the past season.

The business of the meeting was then taken up in the regular order and a number of important matters were discussed and settled. The proposed amendment to the constitution, concerning the Wrestling Association was withdrawn, in view of the fact that it was not deemed advisable from a financial standpoint for their entering the Athletic Association at this time.

Be distinctive

To wear clothes distinctively, is a blessing with which all men have not been favored, but it is quite possible, indeed quite easy, to gain dress distinction by wearing distinctive styles.

We would be greatly pleased to show you over our ready to wear clothing, which is pronounced by critical buyers to be the best on the market.

Price range of suits, $10 to $30
