The Second Sunday Band Concert.

The pleasant weather on Sunday afternoon brought a good sized gathering on the campus in front of Old Main for the second Sunday concert given by the Cadet Band. In the absence of Mr. Meissner, Mr. Atherton lead the band through the program of seven numbers, each of which was played in the spirit of the occasion and with the accustomed harmony and clearness that has marked the playing of the band for some time past. Among the numbers on the program were some favorite selections including Chopin's "Funeral March," "The Drummer of the Guard," and the "Hungarian Dance No 5" The other numbers were "The Prima Donna," "Egyptian Love Dance," "Selections from Erminie," and "The Peacock Badinette."

As has been said many times before, the Cadet Band is one of the best of our college organizations, and the work of its members and the generosity of those who support it is undoubtedly appreciated by the students and townspeople as was proved by the large number in attendance last Sunday.

Be distinctive

To wear clothes distinctively, is a blessing with which all men have not been favored, but it is quiet possible, indeed quiet easy, to gain dress distinction by wearing distinctive styles

We would be greatly pleased to show you over our ready to wear clothing, which is pronounced by critical buyers to be the best on the market
